

ADULT TRAINING PROGRAMME

Engage and support the people you work with. Build confidence in presentation and performance. Make learning more fun.

 — /Thevillagestorytellingcentre
 — @villagestories

Back To Basics: Introduction To Storytelling

→ 9:30am - 12:30pm → Tuesday Oct 27th

This session covers physicality, voice, eye contact, pace, learning stories and many other factors of storytelling. This is an excellent introduction to storytelling and a great way to increase confidence and communication skills.

Perfect for: Everyone

Interactive Storytelling

→ 9:30am - 12:30pm → Tuesday Nov 24th

Working with participants who struggle to concentrate? This comprehensive series of games, stories and exercises will help you get groups, from challenging young people to tearaway tots, up on their feet and engaging with stories. This high energy training session will give you tools to keep their focus through fun.

Perfect for: All teachers, youth workers, community arts leaders, storytellers

Eye To Eye: Supportive Storytelling

→ 1:30 - 4:30pm → Tuesday Dec 8th

Storytelling can help us to see people holistically, to focusing on strengths and building mutual understanding of need. This session will help practitioners enhance time spent with the people they support. We will provide you with subtle storytelling techniques and activities that can gently encourage anybody to tell their own story and identify their own goals.

Perfect for: Health and social care practitioners, managers and frontline staff

Costs per course:

£75 (full price); £65 (third sector), £35 (individual/freelance); £25 (unwaged). 10% discount available if booking 2 courses, 20% for booking 3 or more. Courses running at 5th Floor, 103 Trongate, Glasgow, G1 5HD.

Moving Pictures: Telling Story Through Images

→ 1:30 - 4:30pm → Tuesday Oct 27th

A key skill of the storyteller is to tell their tale naturally without learning a 'script'. This course teaches this skill, so you can tell any story at any time without the fear of forgetting. If you worry about freezing up, if you rely too heavily on reading out loud or are looking to take story from the page to the imagination this is for you.

Perfect for: Nursery and primary school teachers; library staff; storytellers and anybody working with stories

Object Storytelling

→ 1:30 - 4:30pm → Tuesday Nov 24th

Breathe new magic into objects in this session for people who regularly work with objects and artefacts. We will show you how to make your stories more exciting and engaging for your audience, while embedding and enriching learning.

Perfect for: Museum; art gallery curators; tour guides; community artists and storytellers

True Story: From Narrative To Story

→ 9:30am - 12:30pm → Tue Dec 8th

Stories can be powerful, but how do we harness that power and build an engaging story? If you want to help people develop their lived experience into interesting inspiring tales, to tell the story of your organisation or simply improve your presentation of any factual information, this session is what you need.

Perfect for: Everyone

To discuss bespoke courses or having a course delivered in your organisation, please get in touch.

To take part call 0141 882 3025
or email info@thevillagestorytellingcentre.com
Tickets available at Brownpapertickets.com