

Why get involved?

- Acts of Violence Against Women can happen in homes or in your community.
- We all have a role to play in ending it.
- Listen, learn and understand how violence against women affects women and girls you know.
- Learn how to support women and girls in your life who may be affected.
- Be part of the solution lend your voice to our campaign.

Make our communities safer!

Who to speak to:

Maryhill/Kelvin Violence Against Women Local Delivery Group:

Lynne Robertson, North West Women's Centre, 17 – 33 Shawpark Street, Maryhill, 0141 576 1400.

lynne@womenscentreglasgow.org.uk

Garscadden, Scotstounhill & Partick West Violence Against Women Local Delivery group:

Caroline O'Toole, Whiteinch & Scotstoun Housing Association, 1 Northinch Street, Glasgow, 0141 959 2552.

cotoole@wsha.org.uk

Drumchapel/Anniesland Violence Against Women Local Delivery group:

Hilda Campbell, COPE Scotland, The Centre for Change, 20 Drumchapel Road, G15 6QE, 0141 944 5490.

Hilda@cope-scotland.org

Other useful phone numbers:

Scottish Domestic Abuse Helpline: 0800 027 1234

Rape Crisis Scotland Helpline: 08088 01 03 02

FGM Helpline: 0800 028 3550

Men's Advice Line: 0808 801 0327